Season's Greetings, Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Kwanzaa and Happy New Year to all of our terrific residents! May peace, joy, hope and happiness be yours during this Holiday Season and throughout the New Year!!!

We will be hosting Christmas Lunch on December 23rd at 12 PM. We thought it would be fun if you would wear an ugly sweater to the lunch and make this a real party. Join in on the fun, who has the ugliest sweater?

Please note our office will be closed on December 24th & 25th. Also for that week there will be no trips to the grocery stores.

I would appreciate your participation by donating a few dollars to go toward ordering some generous fruit/sweets baskets to honor our paramedics and Fire-Fighters. Donations will be accepted between now and December 16th as well as your warm words of appreciation that you would wish to convey. Our goal is to make this holiday season extra special for the individuals who are helping us.

Christmas Ooops!

Grandpa decided that shopping for Christmas presents had become too difficult. All his grandkids had everything they needed, so he decided just to send them each a check to buy their own gift.. In each card he wrote:

'Merry Christmas, Grandpa'
P.S. 'Buy your own present!'

At a family gathering, grandpa wondered why his grandkids were being slightly distant. It preyed on his mind into the New Year. Then one day he was sorting out his study and under a pile of magazines, he found a little pile of checks he had written for his grandkids. He had completely forgotten to put them in the Christmas cards.

At the St Jude's Primary School Nativity Play, two children are dressed as Mary and Joseph, and they are on their way to the inn in Bethlehem.

Meanwhile on the other side of the stage, a lad in a shepherd's outfit is on a mobile phone, calling to make a reservation.
