Manager's Corner

Thank you to all residents who consistently keep their apartments clean and sanitary. Kudos to you! Our building inspection went well.

On Veterans Day, Nov. 11th, we honor our courageous veterans and their families who answered the call of duty so that we may celebrate 250 years as a free nation. Words just can't convey the debt of gratitude we owe them.

All residents are invited to our traditional Thanksgiving lunch, Wednesday, Nov. 25th, provided by the Board of Directors of Odd Fellows-Rebekah Housing. We thank the Board for its kindness and generosity to share a meal that strengthens friendships, and unifies our community in gratitude.

Residents are responsible for leaving common-area bathrooms in the same condition as they found them. A recent incident caused damage and created health concerns. Please observe these reminders:

- Do not flush adult incontinence products; they clog the toilets.
- Keep elevators clean. Spitting on elevator walls or leaving other messes is unacceptable.

These actions may be grounds for termination of a resident's lease.

Each year, we show our gratitude to first responders with gift baskets in appreciation for their dedication to our well-being. Please donate generously to help us express how much we value their service.

Let's welcome the Christmas spirit this November by reflecting on all we are thankful for. Through our smiles and actions, we can share that gratitude and joy with others. There is always something to be thankful for. I am grateful for so much this year, and you are at the very top of my list. Wishing you all a happy Thanksgiving!
